1. Academic Calendar and Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) Process

At the beginning of each semester, the IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance Cell) prepares the academic calendar based on the schedule provided by RGPV University. This calendar includes various curricular activities and key dates such as:

- College reopening date
- Details of holidays
- Attendance notices
- Dates for Mid-Semester Examinations I & II
- Internal assessments
- Last working day
- Event details
- Tentative dates for university practical exams and end-semester exams

Once the calendar is approved by the principal, it is uploaded to the college website, displayed on notice boards, and communicated to students via email or Google Classroom.

Note: In case of any revisions to the academic calendar by the university, the institute incorporates the necessary changes accordingly.

Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) Process

The institute follows the Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) system as per the RGPV University guidelines. The CIE process is integrated into the academic calendar and includes the following activities:

- Two Mid-Semester Examinations
- Tutorials (if applicable)
- Assignments/Quizzes
- Viva Voce

Additionally, each department formulates its own Activity Calendar for the semester, aligned with both the institute and university calendars. This ensures that all CIE-related activities are notified to students in a timely manner. The Institute strictly adheres to the academic calendar and the university's CIE system.

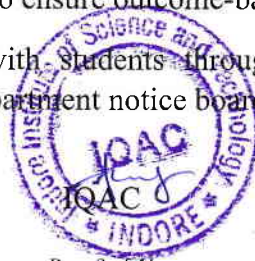

Steps in the CIE and Academic Process

Step 1: Timetable Preparation

The Timetable Coordinator in each department prepares the timetable according to university guidelines and the academic calendar to ensure outcome-based education (OBE).

The finalized timetable is shared with students through email, WhatsApp, or Google Classroom, and is displayed on the department notice boards and in classrooms.

Step 2: Course File Preparation

Upon allocation of subjects to faculty members, each subject's course file is prepared. This includes:

Lecture and practical plans

Assessment plan aligned with the university scheme

Step 3: Mid-Semester Examination Preparation

The dates for the Mid-Semester Examinations (MSTs) are outlined in the academic calendar.

The Examination Control Officer, after obtaining approval from the principal, announces the detailed examination schedule well in advance.

The final examination timetable is circulated to all students by the Examination Section.

Step 4: Setting of Question Papers

The MST question papers are prepared by the concerned faculty members and approved by the respective Head of the Department (HOD).

Faculty members design the MST question papers according to the revised Bloom's Taxonomy levels and map them to the Course Outcomes (COs), along with a detailed scheme of evaluation.

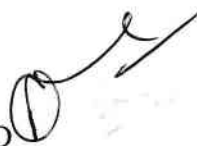

Step 5: Internal Examination Evaluation (MST)

The evaluation process for internal assessments is transparent. Students are shown their answer scripts, and any grievances are addressed in a timely manner.

Step 6: University Examination Schedule

The tentative dates for the university exams are mentioned in the academic calendar.

Once finalized, the university examination schedule is displayed on the student notice boards.

- Indirect Assessment

1. Direct Assessment

The UG program of the electronics & communication engineering department is credit based with continuous evaluation system. Evaluation is conducted by the subject teacher throughout the semester. Each subject contains four main components for evaluation:

- Teacher Assessment: In this component, Assignments, tutorials, problem solving, group discussions, quiz, etc are given and evaluated regularly.
- Mid Semester Examination: Two Mid semester examinations are conducted within semester after the start of Academic Session.
- End semester Examination: End semester examination is conducted at the end of semester. Complete syllabus is covered in this examination. Major Weight age of marks is given to this component.
- Practical Courses: In these courses, continuous evaluation is done through viva-voce, Lab report submission and laboratory quiz.

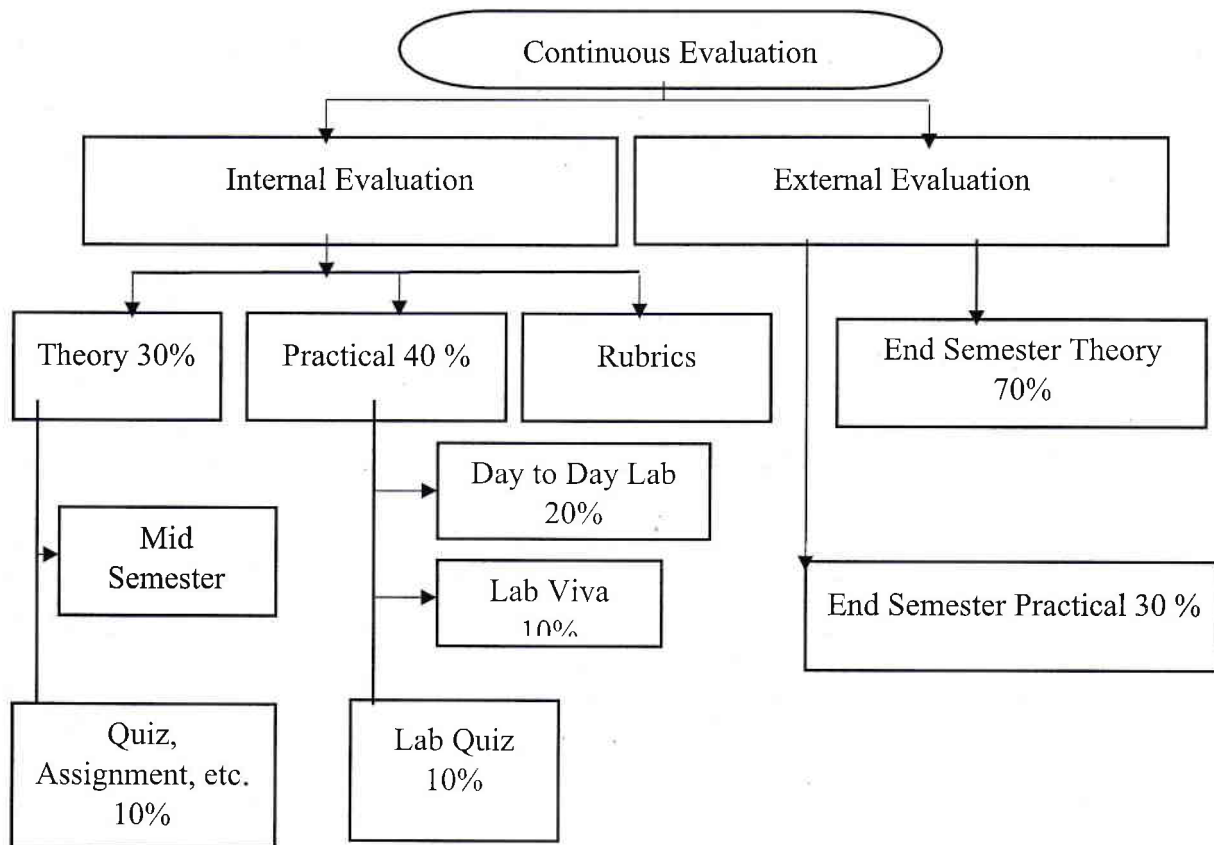

The weight age of components is given in the following table:

| Subject Type | Assessment Components | Weight age (%) |
|-------------------------|------------------------------|----------------|
| Theory | Teacher Assessment | 10 % |
| | Mid Semester Examination | 20 % |
| | End Semester Examination | 70 % |
