Summary

IIST celebrated the auspicious festival of Navratri on 20th October, 2023. Navratri is a Hindu festival that is celebrated for nine nights and ten days, typically in the autumn months of September or October. The word "Navratri" is derived from two Sanskrit words: "Nav" meaning nine and "Ratri" meaning night. The festival is dedicated to the worship of the Hindu goddess.

It is a multi-faceted festival with religious, cultural and social significance. Its purpose is to celebrate and worship the goddess, strengthen spiritual connections, promote unity and cultural values, and encourage personal growth and purification. It's a time of joy, devotion, and reflection for millions of people across India and the world.

All the faculties, staff and hostel faculties and students (especially for evening aarti & puja) participated every auspicious day of Navratri.

The evening ended with a prize distribution ceremony wherein the Best Traditionally Dressed Dancer and the Best Dancer from students were felicitated by the Principal Sir Dr. Keshav Patra. The Schedule was as follows:

Karvachauth Celebration

Name of Event: Oath Ceremony Date of Event: 1st Nov, 2023

No. of Participants: 37 (Female staff)

Venue: Audi- Cafeteria

Participants: All the female faculties and staff

The event was organized by honorable Rekha ma'am

Summary -

Karva Chauth is a traditional Hindu festival primarily observed by married Hindu women in Northern India, although it is gaining popularity in other regions as well. The word "Karva" refers to a clay pot, and "Chauth" means the fourth day, signifying that the festival falls on the fourth day of the Hindu lunisolar calendar, which is usually in October or November. Karva Chauth is a day-long fast observed by married women for the well-being, longevity, and prosperity of their husbands. Here are some key aspects of the celebration and its significance:

Fasting: Married women fast from sunrise to moonrise on Karva Chauth. They abstain from consuming food or water during this time, making it a challenging and significant part of the ritual. The fast is broken only after sighting the moon in the evening. Women usually wake up early, dress in colorful and traditional attire, and adorn themselves with jewelry and henna (mehendi) on their hands. The fast is initiated with a pre-dawn meal, called "sargi," which is prepared by the mother-in-law and consists of various sweets, fruits, and other food items.

Puja (Worship): Women come together in the evening, along with friends and family, to perform a special puja. They use a decorated clay pot (karva) filled with water, a plate of sweets, and an oil lamp as part of the puja. At IIST the event was hosted by respected Rekha Bhatnagar ma'am for all the female faculties and staff.
