Ganesh Chaturthi, also called Vinayaka Chaturthi, a 10-day festival marking the birth of deity Ganesha, the god of prosperity and wisdom. It begins on chaturthi of the month of Bhadrapada. On 31st August 22 the idol of Ganesha was brought by students, faculty members and authorities with band and is placed with the pranaprattishtha, a ritual to invoke life in the idols, amid the chanting of Vedic hymns from religious texts like the Ganesh Upanishad, the idols are anointed with red sandalwood paste and yellow and red flowers. Ganesha is also offered coconut, jaggery, and 21 modaks (sweet dumplings), considered to be Ganesha's favourite food.

At the conclusion of the festival, the idol was carried to narmada river for emersion in huge processions accompanied by drumbeats, devotional singing, and dancing.

The festival was marked with participation of all the families residing in the campus belonging to different regions of our country. The students & families enjoyed the program with great harmony. At the end sweets were distributed to all the participants by Hon'ble DG sir.

Summary:

Diwali is a festival of light and symbolizes the spiritual "victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance".
The event was celebrated with the puja by honorable Director general Sir and later on a session meditation and spirituality was conducted by director general sir. During the session all the faculties and staff were present, after the session diwali sweets were distributed by respected director general sir to all the faculties and staff.
The history of Diwali can be traced back to ancient India, when it most likely began as an important harvest festival. However, there are several legends pointing to the origins of Diwali.
Diwali have their unique traditions that fill people with good hope, love, peace and a rejuvenated mind, not to forget unadulterated happiness.

Vasant Panchami -2023 Celebration

Event Report

Academic Year: 2022-2023

Session: Jan-June 2023 (Even)

Name of Event: Vasavt Panchami/ Saraswati Poojan

Date of Event: 26 January 2023

Event Coordinator: Mr Nishant Bansal & Ms Kirti Choubey

Summary:

In order to make aware the students about the importance of festivals and the depth behind them every year we celebrate vasat Panchami. On this occasion Saraswati poojan is conducted collectively in presence of students & Staff of the institute. Hon'ble DG Shri Arun S Bhatnagar offered prayers on behalf of members of IIST family.

Vasant Panchami is quite an important day for different reasons. We celebrate it to honor Goddess Saraswati and to celebrate the harvest and the onset of spring. On this day the theme color of costumes was yellow as yellow represents the colour of knowledge, learning, and wisdom, which are all qualities that are associated with the goddess. It is also said to symbolize the colour of spring, which is the season during which the festival is celebrated.

This year this festival is celebrated on 26/01/2023. Since it was also republic Day, the theme of cultural program was "Festivals of India". Many teams of students participated in program. Hon'ble DG Shri Arun S Bhatnagar was the chief guest of the program and he conveyed his best wishes on the occasion. At the end Principal Dr. Keshav Patidar delivered the note of thanks.
